Congressional Record.

PROCEEDINGS AND DEBATES OF THE SIXTY-SEVENTH CONGRESS THIRD SESSION.

SENATE.

MONDAY, November 20, 1922.

The third session of the Sixty-seventh Congress commenced this day at the Capitol, in the city of Washington, in pursuance of the proclamation of the President of the United States of the 9th day of November, 1922.

The VICE PRESIDENT (CALVIN COOLIDGE, of Massachusetts) called the Senate to order at 12 o'clock noon.

The Chaplain, Rev. J. J. Muir, D. D., offered the following prayer:

Our Father, as we meet together in special session we humbly crave Thy blessing. Grant that every act may receive Thy help, and that in all the deliberations of these days nothing but good shall be the outcome of the discussions.

We would not forget the family that has been afflicted, and while we think of the sorrow in the vacancy here we humbly beseech Thee for abundant comfort, Thou God of all consolation to widow and children. Reveal Thyself to us along the path of life until the journey ends, to Thy glory. Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE PROCLAMATION.

The VICE PRESIDENT. The Secretary will read the proclamation of the President of the United States convening Congress in extraordinary session.

The Secretary (George A. Sanderson) read the proclamation, as follows:

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES—A PROCLAMATION.

Whereas public interests require that the Congress of the United States should be convened in extra session at 12 o'clock noon on the 20th day of November, 1922, to receive such communication as may be made by the Executive:

Now, therefore, I, Warren G. Harding, President of the United States, do hereby proclaim and declare that an extraordinary occasion requires the Congress of the United States to convene in extra session at the Capitol in the city of Washington on the 20th day of November, 1922, at 12 o'clock noon, of which all persons who shall at that time be entitled to act as Members thereof are hereby required to take notice.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington this 9th day of November, in the year of our Lord 1922, and of the independence of the United States the one hundred and forty-seventh.

[SEAL.] WARREN G. HARDING.

By the President:
CHARLES E. HUGHES,
Secretary of State.

CALL OF THE ROLL.

Mr. LODGE. Mr. President, I make the point of no quorum. The VICE PRESIDENT. The Secretary will call the roll. The reading clerk (John C. Crockett) called the roll, and the following Senators answered to their names:

Curtis	La Follette	Sheppard	Weller
Dial	Lodge	Shields
Edge	McCumber	Shortridge
Elkins	McKellar	Simmons

Mr. HEFLIN. I wish to announce that my colleague [Mr. UNDERWOOD] is absent on account of illness.

Mr. HARRISON. I wish to announce that the senior Senator from Ohio [Mr. POMERENE] is absent in attendance upon the funeral of William G. Sharp, deceased, former ambassador to France.

The VICE PRESIDENT. Sixty-one Senators having answered to their names, a quorum is present.

NOTIFICATION TO THE HOUSE.

Mr. LODGE submitted the following resolution (S. Res. 357), which was read by the Assistant Secretary (Henry M. Rose), considered by unanimous consent, and agreed to:

Resolved, That the Secretary inform the House of Representatives that a quorum of the Senate is assembled, and that the Senate is ready to proceed to business.

NOTIFICATION TO THE PRESIDENT.

Mr. LODGE submitted the following resolution (S. Res. 358), which was read, considered by unanimous consent, and agreed to:

Resolved, That a committee consisting of two Senators be appointed to join such committee as may be appointed by the House of Representatives to wait upon the President of the United States and inform him that a quorum of each House is assembled, and that Congress is ready to receive any communication he may be pleased to make.

The Vice President appointed Mr. LODGE and Mr. SIMMONS as the committee on the part of the Senate.

HOUR OF DAILY MEETING.

Mr. LODGE submitted the following resolution (S. Res. 359), which was read, considered by unanimous consent, and agreed to:

Resolved, That the hour of daily meeting of the Senate be 12 o'clock meridian until otherwise ordered.

DEATH OF SENATOR THOMAS E. WATSON.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, it is my sad duty to announce the death of my colleague, Hon. THOMAS E. WATSON, which occurred on September 26 in Washington, D. C.

His death was caused by overwork in his feeble condition. Time and time again I had urged him not to work so hard and not to remain so closely confined in the Senate, but he felt it his duty to be here battling for the common people whom he loved so well. No man in my State had so many personal friends, whose devotion to him made them followers at all times, and the number was larger at his death than ever before. He was the author of several histories which are regarded the world over as authorities. While a Member of the House he was the author of the first bill providing an appropriation for rural free mail delivery.

I shall not enumerate to-day his great services, but at the proper time I shall ask the Senate to set apart a day for memorial services.

I now submit the following resolutions and ask for their adoption.

The VICE PRESIDENT. The resolutions will be read.

The resolutions (S. Res. 360) were read, as follows:

Resolved, That the Senate has heard with deep regret and profound sorrow the announcement of the death of the Hon. THOMAS E. WATSON, late a Senator from the State of Georgia.

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate communicate these resolutions to the House of Representatives and transmit a copy thereof to the family of the deceased Senator.

Resolved, That as a further mark of respect to the memory of the deceased Senator the Senate do now adjourn.

The VICE PRESIDENT. The question is on agreeing to the resolutions submitted by the Senator from Georgia.

The resolutions were unanimously agreed to, and the Senate (at 12 o'clock and 12 minutes p. m.) adjourned until to-morrow, Tuesday, November 21, 1922, at 12 o'clock meridian.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

MONDAY, November 20, 1922.

This being the day fixed by the proclamation of the President for the meeting of the third session of the Sixty-seventh Congress, the Members of the House of Representatives assembled in their Hall, and at 12 o'clock noon were called to order by the Speaker, Hon. FREDERICK H. GILLETT.

PRESIDENT'S PROCLAMATION.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the proclamation of the President.

The Clerk read as follows:

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA—A PROCLAMATION.

Whereas public interests require that the Congress of the United States should be convened in extra session at 12 o'clock noon on the 20th day of November, 1922, to receive such communication as may be made by the Executive:

Now, therefore, I, Warren G. Harding, President of the United States of America, do hereby proclaim and declare that an extraordinary occasion requires the Congress of the United States to convene in extra session at the Capitol in the city of Washington on the 20th day of November, 1922, at 12 o'clock noon, of which all persons who shall at that time be entitled to act as Members thereof are hereby required to take notice.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington this 9th day of November, in the year of our Lord 1922, and of the independence of the United States the one hundred and forty-seventh.

[SEAL.]

WARREN G. HARDING.

By the President:

CHARLES E. HUGHES,

Secretary of State.

PRAYER.

The SPEAKER. The Chaplain will offer prayer.

The Chaplain, Rev. James Shera Montgomery, D. D., offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, in all the earth Thou art the King of kings and the Lord of lords. Glory be to Thee from everlasting to everlasting. From Thy throne of infinite wisdom look with great favor upon our country, upon our Christian institutions, upon our President, and give gracious protection and nurturing care to all our fellow citizens. The Lord be pleased to direct the deliberations of this assembly. Bless all with vigor of mind and strength of body, and keep us in the realm of Thy love and in the domain of Thy kingdom. In all councils may decisions rest upon truth and righteousness. Let all friendships be heightened and transfigured with Thee, all leisure be deepened into peace, and all uncertainty strengthened into hope. Shadow our families with Thy tender, loving care. Bless officers and pages and all others who serve. O may the joy of our lives be in the sunshine of Thy mercy breaking through the mystery of Thy providence. Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

SENATE.

TUESDAY, November 21, 1922.

The Chaplain, Rev. J. J. Muir, D. D., offered the following prayer:

Our Father and our God, we thank Thee for another day—another day of opportunity, another day of possibility—and we recognize the privilege of making this day potent with hallowed influences that we can serve better our generation by Thy will. We invoke Thy favor here this morning and ask Thee to direct the councils of the day to Thy great honor and glory. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Vice President being absent, the President pro tempore, ALBERT B. CUMMINS, a Senator from the State of Iowa, took the chair.

JOSEPH S. FRELINGHUYSEN, a Senator from the State of New Jersey; FREDERICK HALE, a Senator from the State of Maine; A. OWSLEY STANLEY, a Senator from the State of Kentucky; JAMES W. WADSWORTH, Jr., a Senator from the State of New York; ATLEE POMERENE and FRANK B. WILLIS, the Senators from the State of Ohio, appeared in their seats to-day.

On request of Mr. LODGE and by unanimous consent, the reading of the Journal of yesterday's proceedings was dispensed with and the Journal was approved.

NOTIFICATION TO THE PRESIDENT.

Mr. LODGE and Mr. SIMMONS appeared, and Mr. LODGE said:

Mr. President, the committee appointed by the Senate to notify the President have attended to the duty assigned to them and have the honor to report to the Senate that they saw the President of the United States and that he informed them that it was his intention to address the Congress to-day at half past 12 in the Chamber of the House of Representatives.

SENATORS FROM PENNSYLVANIA.

Mr. LODGE. Mr. President, I present the credentials of GEORGE WHARTON PEPPER, senior Senator elect from the State of Pennsylvania, and DAVID A. REED, junior Senator elect from the State of Pennsylvania, which I ask may be read.

The credentials were read and ordered to be filed, as follows:

IN THE NAME AND BY AUTHORITY OF THE
COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA,
Executive Department.

To the President of the Senate of the United States:

This is to certify that on the 7th day of November, 1922, GEORGE WHARTON PEPPER was duly chosen by the qualified electors of the State of Pennsylvania a Senator from said State to represent said State in the Senate of the United States until the 4th day of March, 1927.

Witness: His excellency our governor, and our seal hereto affixed at the city of Harrisburg, this 18th day of November, in the year of our Lord 1922.

[SEAL.] Wm. C. SPROUL, Governor.
By the governor:
BERNARD J. MYERS,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

IN THE NAME AND BY AUTHORITY OF THE
COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA,
Executive Department.

To the President of the Senate of the United States:

This is to certify that on the 7th day of November, 1922, DAVID A. REED was duly chosen by the qualified electors of the State of Pennsylvania a Senator from said State to represent said State in the Senate of the United States until the 4th day of March, 1923.

Witness: His excellency our governor, and our seal hereto affixed at the city of Harrisburg, this 18th day of November, in the year of our Lord 1922.

[SEAL.] Wm. C. SPROUL, Governor.
By the governor:
BERNARD J. MYERS,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

Mr. LODGE. The Senators elect from Pennsylvania are here and ready to take the oath of office.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. There being no objection, the several Senators elect will be sworn in at the same time.

Mr. LODGE. I have no objection to that course.

SENATOR FROM DELAWARE.

Mr. BAILL. Mr. President, I present the credentials of THOMAS F. BAYARD, Senator elect from the State of Delaware. I ask that his credentials may be read and that the oath of office may be administered to him.

The credentials were read, and ordered to be filed, as follows:

BY AUTHORITY OF THE STATE OF DELAWARE.

To the President of the Senate of the United States:

Be it known, an election was held in the State of Delaware on Tuesday, the 7th day of November, in the year of our Lord 1922, that being the Tuesday next after the first Monday in said month, in pursuance of the Constitution of the United States and the laws of the State of Delaware, in that behalf, for the election of a Senator for the people of the said State in the Senate of the United States.

Whereas the official certificates or returns of the said election, held in the several counties of the said State, in due manner made out, signed, and executed, have been delivered to me according to the laws of the said State, by the superior court of the said counties; and having examined said returns and enumerated and ascertained the number of votes for each and every candidate or person voted for, for such Senator, I have found THOMAS F. BAYARD to be the person highest in vote, and therefore duly elected Senator of and for the said State in the Senate of the United States for the residue of the constitutional term which commenced on the 4th day of March, in the year of our Lord 1917.

I, William D. Denney, governor, do, therefore, according to the form of the act of the general assembly of the said State and of the act of Congress of the United States, in such case made and provided, declare the said THOMAS F. BAYARD the person highest in vote at the election aforesaid, and therefore duly and legally elected Senator of and for the said State of Delaware in the Senate of the United States, for the residue of the constitutional term which commenced on the 4th day of March in the year of our Lord 1917.

Given under my hand and the great seal of the said State, in obedience to the said act of the general assembly and of the said act of Congress, at Dover, the 15th day of November, in the year of our Lord 1922, and in the year of the independence of the United States of America the one hundred and forty-seventh.

[SEAL.]
By the governor:
A. R. BENSON,
Secretary of State.

WM. D. DENNEY,

SENATOR FROM GEORGIA.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, after the death of my late colleague, Thomas E. Watson, the governor of my State appointed as his successor Mrs. REBECCA LATIMER FELTON. Her credentials were sent to the Secretary of the Senate and have been here for some days. I hope no Senator will object to her taking the oath of office. The Senator elect from Georgia, Hon. WALTER F. GEORGE, very generously and very graciously has withheld his credentials in order that Mrs. FELTON may take the oath, and, as I said, I hope no Senator will object. This will not in any way prejudice Mr. GEORGE's claims to his seat in the Senate, to which the people of my State have elected him, and his credentials will be presented to-morrow.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. The Senator from Georgia will present the certificate of appointment.

Mr. HARRIS. It is in the possession of the Secretary of the Senate.

Mr. WALSH of Montana addressed the Senate. After having spoken for some time,

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE.

A message from the House of Representatives, by Mr. Overhue, its enrolling clerk, announced that a quorum of the House of Representatives had assembled and that the House was ready for business.

The message also announced that a committee of three were appointed by the Speaker on the part of the House of Representatives to join with the committee on the part of the Senate to wait on the President of the United States and to notify him that a quorum of the two Houses had assembled and that Congress was ready to receive any communication that he might be pleased to make, and that Mr. MONDELL, Mr. MADDEN, and Mr. GARRETT of Tennessee were appointed as the committee on the part of the House.

The message further communicated to the Senate the resolutions of the House unanimously adopted as a tribute to the memory of Hon. THOMAS E. WATSON, late a Senator from the State of Georgia.

The message also communicated to the Senate the intelligence of the death of Hon. CHARLES R. CONNELL, late a Representative from the State of Pennsylvania, and transmitted the resolutions of the House thereon.

The message further communicated to the Senate the intelligence of the death of Hon. JOHN I. NOLAN, late a Representative from the State of California, and transmitted the resolutions of the House thereon.

The message also announced that the House had passed a bill (H. R. 11579) to amend section 1 of an act approved January 11, 1922, entitled "An act to permit the city of Chicago to acquire real estate of the United States of America," in which it requested the concurrence of the Senate.

The message further announced that the House had agreed to a concurrent resolution (H. Con. Res. 72) authorizing the two Houses of Congress to assemble in the Hall of the House of Representatives on Tuesday, the 21st day of November,
